

March 31, 1941

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Manley,

I don't suppose you remember me my name is Allen Red. I had a tryout with your team last year. I am in the army now. Station at Fort Ontario Oswego N. Y. 369 C. A. (A. A.). We have been in Oswego since January when we were inducted into service from National Guards. It is very cold up here but we are getting use to it. It is developing me and my left arm. I am writing to you because I would like to see your opening game.